BYLAWS

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These are listed by Districts.

4. Each church shall mail monthly reports to the Conference Office within ten days after the close of each month. In addition, each church shall mail semi-annual reports to the Conference Office by the tenth of July and the tenth of January; and shall mail an annual report to the Conference Office by January 10th. These reports shall be on forms made available for purchase from the Conference Office.

Voting for Pastor

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on the last Sunday of April or the first Sunday of May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Work of the Stationing Committee

1. The Stationing Committee shall deliberate on matters related to ministerial assignments and shall have ample time for interviews with lay delegates and ministers before reaching a final decision.

2. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Stationing Committee for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

3. Ministers shall be informed of their appointment during consultation with the Stationing Committee. If an adjustment has to be made, the committee shall grant the minister another consultation.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church delegate(s) makes a request to the Stationing Committee contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Committee. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

5. No person, other than duly elected delegates, shall consult with the Stationing Committee concerning pastoral assignments, unless the pastor and delegates involved are invited to attend the meeting.

6. The Stationing Committee report shall be read at the close of the Quadrennial Conference session.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church a minimum of six (6) months before the convening of the Conference. This requirement shall not apply to ministers transferring from another Conference.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license, who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine, reputation, and credit rating.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern Bible College, Emmanuel College, The School of Christian Ministries at Emmanuel College, or a course of study approved by the General Conference. These studies may be in residence or by correspondence.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

1. No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Official Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

1. All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent

(1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference Office by the tenth of the month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job; it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary semi-annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of a pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church which the pastor is leaving will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the Annual Conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist without giving at least thirty days' notice, that church shall pay the evangelist.

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

The well-known greeting card conglomerate headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri had as its slogan for over a decade, "When you care enough to send the very best."

That is exactly what our Lord did when the Godhead so carefully and thoroughly planned our salvation and the fellowship of The Faith.

This idea is incorporated in the United States Army slogan, "Be all you can be" as they seek recruits.

This drive for excellence in the Body of Christ however, is not found in some advertising scheme but in the heart of our God Who wants us to utilize all He has given us to excel for His glory.

The clergy and parishioners of this Conference have demonstrated again in 1993 that we are a people of vision and vitality. You afforded me a place in the God-ordained activity of this great enterprise of the Holy Spirit. I am grateful to the Lord and to you.

My activities during 1993 included 142 sermons preached as I drove approximately 35,000 miles in Conference work and preaching appointments. I also was involved in approximately 1186 visits with individuals and church boards. In addition Conference Board Meetings, Christian Education and Evangelism Board Meetings, Conference Missions Committee Meetings, General Church World Missions Board Meetings, General Church Planning and Budgeting Committee Meetings (First eight months of 1993), Falcon Children Home Board Meetings, General Board of Administration Meetings, and Emmanuel College Board of Education Meetings added to Falcon Campmeeting, Christian Workers Institute, Piney Grove Campmeeting, have taken a lot of my energies and time. Twelve District Conference and six Bi-District Conference/Evangelism Rallies were also a part of the schedule.

The Conference Board is a great group of men who sacrificially give of their time and energy to seek the direction God wants this Conference to go to better know and do His will in this body of believers and in the world around us.

Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson (Women's Ministries President), and Mr. Bill Roberson (Men's Ministries Director) are a tremendous blessing to the ministry of the Conference. Brother Bobby Forehand, Christian Education Director, and Brother Chris Thompson, Director of Evangelism/Missions are to be commended for a job well done. The office staff and departmental boards and committees are a valuable asset to the work. I praise these dear people for their lasting contributions.

Total on Roll at the End of 1993:

ORDAINED	LICENSED	TOTAL OF THESE SUPERANNUATED	MISSIONS WORKERS
274	61	81	104

Other changes in the ministerial roster will be noted in the end of the 1994 report. These have occurred since January 1, 1994.

In a few short years we will be facing the start of a new century if our Lord Jesus Christ tarries His coming. The planting of new churches must be a priority of our labor. I realize that our geographical location does not provide us with a large metropolitan population from which to draw. However, there are areas where new church congregations could start. Some of these are areas where existing congregations are dwindling because of population shifts and other factors. In some places two or more very small congregations could prayerfully consider a merger in order to strengthen the Body and mobilize the workers for His Harvest. Some of our larger congregations need to "mother" a new church. This could be done locally or we might venture into an unreached area of another state where we have little or no presence. Groups of Conference churches or a district could get involved in church planting within or without the geographical boundaries of this Conference. Ethnic ministry opportunities must be discovered and developed, too.

A major key to reaching our potential is continuing revival that will revitalize existing churches. This is imperative! While our message must not be diluted with contemporary philosophy that tends to compromise Biblical truth we must be people of vision who are willing to adopt methods that will enhance our work for the Master.

Commitment to training and development of better equipped ministers, lay and clergy, is a great need of the hour. We must elect leadership and adopt legislation that will help facilitate this urgent matter.

The continued prayerful and financial support of all the people and local churches the Lord has given us is necessary for our expansion into vistas of the end time harvest into which we are now thrust.

We move forward while our gaze is upward in the strong name our Lord Jesus Christ. Our heritage is grand. We build upon the mighty past and present our Fathers and Mothers in The Faith have given us in the will of God, our Eternal Father.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Today, we want to pay tribute to our Sister and Brothers for a job well done. They have been faithful to obey God in answering His call and in preaching His glorious Gospel. They have labored faithfully at their calling, and today they exchange the heavy robe of responsibility they have born for these many years, for a lighter robe of responsibility.

It would be impossible to mention everything that has happened through their faithful service because all the results will not be in until time is no more. But, God knows of each of their efforts and He will surely recognize and reward these great laborers of His Kingdom.

Vacaville P.H. - California	1969-1971
Tampa First P.H. - Tampa	1972-1977
Carson Memorial	1982-1990

Knowing that the Christian life is a warfare, we are admonished in Revelation 2:10 to "be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1993 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the forty-ninth annual convention on Saturday, June 5, 1993, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC.

The convention theme was LIFE'S PRECIOUS MOMENTS. Registration began at 8:30 a.m. with the NCWM District Directors serving as registrars. Musical prelude began at 9:15 with Mrs. Sandra McCandless as pianist and Mrs. Betty LeRoux as organist.

The convention opened at 9:30 with the NCWM Board members singing a special song, "Take A Moment and Live." The North Carolina Conference Superintendent T. E. Long gave greetings and the invocation after which NCWM President Mary Belle Johnson gave the response. Mrs. Linda Thomas led the congregation in singing "In Moments Like These." Rev. Raymond Potter, Field Representative of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Missions Department, gave a missions update and solicited support for the Mug-a-Month program and other missions projects.

President Mary Belle Johnson gave the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She expressed appreciation to all who have supported the NCWM programs throughout the past year. She was assisted by Mrs. Westa Barefoot as she presented gifts of appreciation to the NC GEMS officers, CWF Director Mrs. Sylvia Long, NCWM Historian Dorothy Boyette, and the District Directors. Mrs. Barefoot also assisted her in presenting the awards the local Women's Ministries groups had earned during the 1992 year. All awards are listed in the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries."

Mrs. Rhonda Riley, of Greenville First PH Church, set the tone of the devotional part of the Convention with her special vocal rendition of a medley of favorite hymns. The program focus was on PRECIOUS MOMENTS: Reflections From The Seasons of Life. Participants were as follows: From the Heart of a Child - Kayle Klix; The Joy of Youth - Deborah Ballance and Crystal Teal; Moments of Acceptance - Mesheldar Richardson; The Beauty of Love - Mrs. Kim Ipock; The Fullness of Life - Mrs. Lois Bradshaw. Following their presentations, Mrs. Linda Thomas led the congregation in singing a chorus she had written for the convention entitled "Precious Moments."

Mrs. Dollie Davenport, a former NCWM President, introduced Mrs. Helen Harrison who was keynote speaker for the convention. Mrs. Harrison gave a warm and intimate testimony of the precious moments of her life, relating her experiences during the illness and death of her only son. Following her address, Mrs. Regenia Whitfield gave the Memoirs Report. Those persons who were included in her report were remembered by having someone in the congregation stand in memory and reflect silently on their life.

Mrs. Joyce Whitfield, from the ATA Ministry, gave a report on the ministry of the Royal Home and introduced one of the girls whom the home has served. She shared with the congregation what the ministry of the home has meant to her and introduced her baby. Following this, an offering was received for the ATA Royal Home.

Mrs. Johnson gave closing remarks, after which the congregation sang "Precious Memories." Mrs. Sue Parker prayed the benediction.

The beautiful floral arrangement was furnished by Mrs. Westa Barefoot and the Peniel Women's Ministries in memory of Mrs. Nita Coil. The banner for the convention was made by Mrs. Beth Lane.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES CONVENTION
MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

Proverbs 31 paints a beautiful picture of a virtuous woman. In one section of this portrait, you will find a burning candle. The last portion of verse 18 reads, "Her candle goeth not out by night." The candle burns -- through the night -- to give light to all who are in the house. It is a light to guide through the darkness. I has been stated that some people go through life as a torch, making a big light as it passes through but burning out very quickly, leaving nothing behind. It is much better to be a candle, to burn longer, and to leave many lights along the path of life. We want to recognize some of the virtuous women who were a vital part of our North Carolina Women's Ministries who have passed through this life as a burning candle and whose flames have burned to light other candles along the way.

Ladies, as you have lit your candle as a symbol that you will continue to carry the light of the one before you, may you carry this light always with you in your hearts. Keep the flame buring -- it will make a difference. Before you know, the room will be glowing with light from the flame of one candle of a virtuous woman.
We will miss these precious women whom we memorialize today, but they would say to us "Don't let my candle go out! Pass the light on."
Let us join in silent prayer in honor of their memory.
Lord, thank you that our lives have been touched by YOUR LIGHT as it has burned through these precious lives. Keep their memory alive in our hearts, we pray. AMEN.
